Staten Island Legal Services (across the street from the ferry), the Staten Island office of Legal Services NYC (â€œLSNYCâ€), is seeking a full-time Staff Attorney to join our housing law practice.

About Us:

Staten Island Legal Services (SILS), part of Legal Services NYC, fights poverty and seeks racial, social, and economic justice for low-income New Yorkers. SILS provides high-quality, innovative representation to address the pressing legal needs of Staten Islandâ€™s diverse low-income populations. SILS focuses on the problems that have the greatest impact on our clients â€” preserving affordable and decent housing, representing survivors of domestic violence, obtaining immigration status and preventing deportations, advocating for the LGBTQ community, preventing foreclosures, and advocating for students with educational needs. In addition to being the largest provider of civil legal services in the country, LSNYC provides numerous opportunities for growth and professional development. Our Learning Center provides opportunities to earn free CLEs and gain experience as a trainer. LSNYC prides itself on its Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (DEIB) efforts. As a social justice organization, we are committed to fighting for a workplace that is as diverse, equitable, and inclusive as possible for everyone. Our DEIB committee and numerous affinity groups work to foster collegial relationships among staff and allow staff to explore and advocate for racial justice and anti-oppression growth within our organization and through our legal work. All employees are expected to learn about, seek to understand, and work to realize our DEIB goals.

Housing Unit Description:

The Housing Unit represents clients in Housing Court eviction proceedings, state, and federal court, and administrative hearings. All members of the Housing Unit work collaboratively with community-based organizations and local elected officials and their staff. Given the diversity of our clients and team, the Staff Attorney must be able to thoughtfully navigate issues regarding racial equity. In addition, the team aims to protect tenantsâ€™ rights, prevent harassment, preserve affordable housing, and avoid displacement, particularly on Staten Islandâ€™s North Shore. The Unit preserves affordable housing through the representation of low-income tenants in eviction proceedings and affirmative litigation to challenge abusive and discriminatory conduct that displaces low-income families and eliminates affordable housing.

Tenant Rights Coalition (TRC):

TRC works on anti-displacement advocacy in Staten Island, focusing on supporting Staten Island communities facing significant housing needs in light of rapid and potentially disruptive neighborhood changes and gentrification.

Role & Responsibilities:

The Staff Attorneyâ€™s responsibilities will include but are not limited to the following:

- Represent clients in both individual housing matters, including eviction defense proceedings, and multi-plaintiff affirmative cases to address repairs, overcharges, harassment, and more.
- Appear in civil, supreme, and federal court as well as administrative proceedings.
- Work closely with tenant organizers, tenant associations, and community partners to identify and address housing needs.
- Developing expertise in housing court practice, housing programs and subsidies, and public benefits.
- Conducting intake and providing legal advice and counseling to tenants as needed.
- Conducting neighborhood-based legal clinics and know-your-rights workshops.
- Identifying trends and recurrent issues for potential impact litigation.
- Providing training to other advocates, tenant associations, community members, and community groups.
- Collaborate and communicate with attorneys, paralegals, and the client regarding advocacy issues, including public benefits, FHEPS applications, and other housing subsidies.
- Conduct community outreach and act as a liaison with community-based organizations and agencies. Expected to conduct weekday, evening, and weekend outreach and off-site intake with our partners.
- Administrative tasks, including timekeeping, uploading documents, data reporting, and case closing for grant compliance.

Experience and Qualifications:

- Applicants must have a J.D. from an accredited law school;
- Admitted or be in the process of being admitted to practice law in the State of New York;
- Strong demonstrated background and experience in the public interest and/or housing law and tenant/landlord issues;
- Experience working with diverse low-income communities and familiarity with structural and systemic racism and its intersection with poverty. Strong ties to or understanding of the Staten Island low-income communities is a plus;
- Commitment to social justice and working in low-income communities and communities of color to advance equity;
- Excellent leadership, analytical, oral, and written communication skills;
- Strong interest in working directly with clients, specifically clients in crisis;
• Strong time management and organizational skills; and
• Fluency or proficiency in Spanish or another language spoken by the communities we serve is preferred.

Salary determined by Collective Bargaining Agreement. Hybrid remote work policy, and excellent benefits package.
